IMPORTANT NOTES

Please read this information before you complete the Benefit Payment Request Form. Please contact a TOWER Customer Service Consultant should you require any additional information.

Things you need to consider when rolling over or withdrawing your superannuation

When you rollover or withdraw your TOWER superannuation benefits, your entitlements under the Fund may cease. You should consider all relevant information before you make a decision to transfer your superannuation. Some of the points you may consider are:

- Fees – TOWER must give you information about any fees that apply when rolling over or withdrawing your superannuation. The fees could include administration fees as well as exit or withdrawal fees. If you are not aware of the fees that may apply, please contact a TOWER Customer Service Consultant for further information before completing this form. The fund you are rolling over your benefit to (if applicable), may also charge entry or deposit fees on transfer. Differences in fees may have a significant effect on your superannuation savings. For example, a 1% increase in fees may significantly reduce your final benefit.
- Death and disability benefits – through your superannuation policy, TOWER may currently insure you against death, illness or an accident which leaves you unable to return to work. If you choose to withdraw your superannuation benefits from TOWER, you may lose any insurance entitlements you have. Other funds may not offer insurance, or may require you to pass a medical examination before they cover you. When considering a new fund, you may wish to check the costs and amount of any insurance cover offered.

What happens if I do not quote my tax file number?

You are not obligated to provide your Tax File Number (TFN) to TOWER. However, if you do not provide your TFN, your contributions may be taxed at the highest marginal rate plus Medicare levy, compared to the concessional tax rate of 15%. TOWER may deduct this additional tax from your account. Your cash benefit may also be taxed at the highest marginal rate plus Medicare levy.

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, TOWER is authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. The TFN may be disclosed to another superannuation provider, when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request in writing that your TFN is not to be disclosed to any other trustee.

What happens to my future contributions?

Using this form to rollover your superannuation benefits will not change the fund to which your employer pays your contributions and may close your account with TOWER.

If you wish to change the fund into which your contributions are being paid, you will need to speak to your employer. For the appropriate forms and information about whether you are eligible to choose the fund to which your employer contributions are made, visit www.ato.gov.au or call the Australian Taxation Office on 13 10 20.

Rollover to Self Managed Superannuation Fund

You may use this form to rollover your super benefit to your own Self Managed Superannuation Fund.

You should be aware that SMSFs are subject to the same rules and restrictions as other funds, when benefits are to be paid out. In particular, super benefits in a SMSF are required to be 'preserved', meaning they are not generally able to be accessed until you have reached your preservation age and are retired or meet other eligibility requirements.

The Trustee may be able to request further information from you about your status as a member, a trustee or a director of a corporate trustee of your SMSF, if there are multiple transfer requests to your SMSF. Penalties may apply for providing false or misleading information.

Temporary residents – new conditions of release

From 1 April 2009, an individual who has, at any stage, been a temporary resident (i.e., a holder of a temporary visa under the Migration Act 1958, other than a retirement visa holder, subclass 405 or 410) and who is not currently a citizen or a permanent resident of Australia or New Zealand, is only able to withdraw their superannuation benefits under limited conditions of release.

You are normally only allowed to access your benefits after you have permanently departed Australia. In order to access your benefits, you can apply online via the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) website.

Please visit www.ato.gov.au and look for the Departing Australia Superannuation Payment (DASP) online form. For more information, contact the ATO on 13 10 20 or +61 2 6216 1111 (if you are calling from overseas).

However, if you are still in Australia and one of the release conditions below apply to you, subject to Trustee assessment and approval, your benefits may be released:

- Death
- Terminal medical condition
- Permanent incapacity
- Temporary incapacity

Have you changed your name or are you signing on behalf of another person?

If you have changed your name or are signing on behalf of the member, you will need to provide a certified linking document. A linking document is a document that proves a relationship exists between two (or more) names.

The following table contains information about suitable linking documents.

Purpose	Suitable linking documents
Change of name	Marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Office.
Signed on behalf of the Member	Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney.

Certification of personal documents

All submitted copies of identification documents (including any linking documents) need to be certified as true copies by an individual approved to do so. Please note that copies of original documents cannot be certified by yourself or a family member.

The person who is authorised to certify documents must sight the original and the copy and make sure all pages have been certified as true copies by writing or stamping 'certified true copy' followed by their signature, printed name, qualification and date.

The following people are authorised to certify copies of the originals as true and correct copies:

1. A person enrolled on the Roll of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner (however described);
2. A judge of a court;
3. A magistrate;
4. A chief executive officer of a Commonwealth Court;
5. A registrar or deputy registrar of a court;
6. A Justice of the Peace (JP);
7. A notary public for the purposes of the Statutory Declaration Regulations 1993; (see Note 1)
8. A police officer;
9. An agent of the Australian Postal Corporation who is in charge of an office supplying postal service to the public;
10. A permanent employee of the Australian Postal Corporation with 2 or more years continuous service who is employed in an office supplying postal services to the public;
11. An Australian consular officer or an Australian diplomatic officer (Within the meaning of the Consular Fees Act 1955);
12. An officer with 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more financial institutions (for the purpose of the Statutory Declaration Regulations, 1993);
13. A finance company officer with 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more finance companies (for the purpose of the Statutory Declaration Regulations, 1993);
14. An officer with, or authorised representative of, a holder of an Australian financial services licence, having 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more licensees; and
15. A member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, CPA Australia or the National Institute of Accountants with 2 or more years of continuous membership.

Checklist for Certified copies:
